

Project #1: Escribir una historia/cuento

Skill Level: Grade 11

Time Needed: a week and a half, due on Thursday 13th of March

This project is asking you to write your very own story/book. The story can be about anything you want, romance, power and corruption, detective, drama,...

You will have to make sure your story makes sense with a clear beginning, main part and end. You are free to choose from a personal or fictional story as long as it is retelling a past story.

Learning Goals: Making a story using preterite and imperfect

Investigation: You should find a theme for your story and make a plan of how are actions are going to unfold. You should use the appropriate vocabulary adapted to the chosen theme.

Presentation: You will present your story as a real book with cover and illustrations. You can choose how your book will be presented (e.g., paper, document,...)
